Verse 1

Many faces, the young and the old

Gathered as one in our God!

Throughout histr'y the story's retold

Gathered as one in our God!

Like those come before us, we listen and learn.

We remember the promise and wait your return.

So without hesitation, a new generation

Proclaims the salvation of God!

First Reading (Acts 2:1-11)

Proclaimed in Ukrainian

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together.
And suddenly there came from the sky
a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.
Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire,
which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

First Reading (Acts 2:1-11)

Proclaimed in Ukrainian

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem.

At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?

Then how does each of us hear them in his native language?

First Reading (Acts 2:1-11)

Proclaimed in Ukrainian

We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia,
Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene,
as well as travelers from Rome,
both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs,
yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues
of the mighty acts of God."

Lector: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Joonim, dang shin sumul bonae siuh
Onnurie earlgureul Saeropgue haso suh.

Lord, send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading (1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13)

Proclaimed in Tamila (Indian)

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

Second Reading (1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13)

Proclaimed in Tamila (Indian)

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Mass of St. Ann

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Priest: The Lord be with you.

Response: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Response: Glory to you, O Lord.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you,
Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Mass of St. Ann

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

I believe in One God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in One Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
(all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
