

DANCE IN THE LITURGY

Dance is considered foreign to worship in the Latin rite and should not be introduced except in celebrations by a particular existing culture (e.g. Vietnamese, Native American or African American) and then only if it enhances the liturgy.